THE PAY OF KINGS.

One Good Argument in Payor of Socialism in Europe.

From the Philadelphia Provs.

In this country, where the Executive considered to be "passing rich" on a lary of $50,000 a year, with the White ouse as a general and the Soldiers' ome as a summer residence, there may be some natural curiosity regarding the pecuniary allowance paid to foreign potentates. It is to be remembered, however, that the majority of these rulers also possess inherited property, real and personal, of considerable value,

and that the respective rulers are also allowed magnificent palaces, chateaux and rural residences, repaired and furnished out of public revenue. Taking most of our figures from Frederick Mor ton's Year Book, a very reliable work, revised after official returns, and now in its fifteenth year, we shall proceed with

Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary, born in August, 1830, has a civil list (as his salary is generally called) of $4,650,000 a year.

Leopeld II, King of Belgium, born in April, 1835, has a civil list of $660.

THE PAY OF KINGS.

One Good Argament in Favor of Social-ism in Enrope.

From the Philadelphia Props. In this country, where the Executive considered to be "passing rich" on a alary of $50,000 a year, with the White Iouse as a general and the Soldiers' lome as a summer residence, there may be some natural curiosity regarding the pecuniary allowance paid to foreign potentates. It is to be remembered, however, that the majority of these rulers also possess inherited property, real and personal, of considerable value, and that the respective rulers are also allowed magnificent palaces, chateaux and rural residences, repaired and furnished out of public rovenue. Taking most of our figures from Frederick Mor ton's Year Book, a very reliable work, revised after official returns, and now in its fifteenth year, we shall proceed with the potentates.

Francis Joseph, Emperor of Austria and King of Hungary, born in August, 1830, has a civil list (as his salary is generally called) of $4,650,000 a year.

Leopold II, King of Belgium, $4,650,000 a year. in April, 1835, has a civil list of $660,-

Christian IX, King of Denmark, born in April, 1818, has a civil list of 500, 000 rigsdalers, or $227,775. His eldest son has an annual allowance of $33,333. Marshal MacMahon, President of the French Republic, has an annual salary of $120,000, with an extra $60,000 for housekeeping expenses. President

Thiers had the same salary, with $77, 560 for housekeeping. Napoleon III. had the largest civil list in the world. It amounted to $5,000,000 a year, in addition to which he received the income of the crown domains, amounting to $2,400,000, and the free possession of a number of palaces, parks, forests and mansions, kept at the expense of the State. His total income reached the sum of $7,000,000 Nevertheless, the debts on the Imperial civil list were stated in 1867 to amount a $16,000,000. William I, born in March, 1797, recives no salary as German Emperor. His annual salary as King of Prussia is $3,079,760. Most of the expenditure of the royal family and the court is de frayed out of the sovereign's immense private property.

Ludwig II., King of Bavaria, born in August, 1845, has a civil list of $1,-878,365. Karl L, King of Wurtemburg, born in March, 1823, has a civil list of $391,685, with an additional an nual grant of $1,375,355 for the other members of the royal family. Albert I., King of Saxony, born April, 1823, has a civil list of $635,000, with an additional $127,950 a year for the princes and princesses. This little grant may be justifiable, as in 1830 the reigning monarch surrendered his domains to become the property of the State. Victoria, Queen of England, born in May, 1819, has a civil list of $1,925,000, with 300,000 more from the duchy to his late father. William 111., King 1st Boor North of Wingate's Lump Store scription of country and route, or any other information about the West, call on 1819, has a salary of $250,000, with an addition of half as much more for members of the royal family. He and the King of Wurtemburg are believed to be the richest sovereigns in Europe. The whole grants to Louis L. of Portugal, born in 1838, and his family,

The whole grants to Louis I., of Portugal, born in 1838, and his family, amount to $660,000.

Alexander II., of Russia, born in April, 1818, possesses the revenue from the immense crown domains, equal to about $1,000,000 a year. Alfonso XII., of Spain, born in November, 1857, bas a civil list of $2,000,000. Oscar II., of Sweden, born January, 1829, has a civil list of $338,330 from Sweden, and $94.415 from Norway. He also has an annuity of $833,330, voted many years ago to Carl XIV (Bernadotte), and his successors on the throne of Sweden, the total is $416,105 per annum.

The President of the Swiss Republic, who has only a single year term, receives $3,000 per annum. Novertheless Switzerland is well governed.

There is no knowing what is the salary or income of Abdul Hamid, Saltan of Turkey, born September, 1842. The civil list of Abdul Aziz, who was his immediate predocessor, varied from $4,557,536, in 1868, to $5.351,020, in 1875, but it has been calculated on good authority that in the latter years of his reign, which closed in May, 1876, Abdul Aziz spont $22,500, 000 a year salary and £12,000 for "allowances" and Viceroy of India. The Duke of Marlborough gets £20,000 a year as lord Lieutenant of Ireland. The Earl of Dufferin has £10,000 salary as Vicerey of Canada.

Cohen made no attempt to day to march his mob

Summs, the negro who was arrested on Saturday for striking an officer during the riot, was in the police court today. Judge Snell, in giving a decision in his case, said that he held that Cohen had excited a feeling of riot among the more deluded and ignorant class, which, unless checked, might lead to serious results. While Cohen worked up this sort of thing, he was sharp enough to keep out of the way of the law, and his followers became victims All meetings and processions similar to those held by Cohen wore rictous and disorderly The property and lives of the people were endangered, and should death result from any of these proceedings, each follower of Cohen would be amenable tor homicide. It should be stopped.-The workingmen could gain nothing Cohon was nobody and could do them no good. He concluded by saying that the accused was one of Cohen's victims that had been worked into the feeling of riot because of his teachings, and only fine him $10, or, in default, thirty are being taken down rapidly.

GRENADA, MISS, Sept 23 -The fever in Grenada is still in as malignant a form as ever. The decrease in the death list and the number of new cases. is only due to the fact that there is not much more material for it to prey upon. Yesterday there were only three new cases and one death. There are some others, among them Mr. Lucas, the telegraph operator at the M. and T June tion, who is in a very critical condition and will probably die. MEMPHIS, Sept. 23.—The weather bas turned warm again, which is favorable to the spreading of the disease among those who yet remain well. Since last night John C. Niemann, Alex. J. McConnell and John W. Lewis are names that appear among those who have died. Martin Griffin, Cashier of the German National Bank, was taken down this afternoon. This will not interfere with the business of the bank, as ex-Mayor John John-son, Superintendent of the Howard Association, has taken charge, and will keep the institution open.

The hope that had existed in the breast of the living that the fever was abating has been dispelled by the reports of to-day at the Howard headquarters. There has been one continnous call for nurses, and the demand has given employment to many who were on the eve of departure for their homes, thinking their services were no longer required. The Board of Health officially reports sixty-four deaths for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock to-night, of these twenty-two were colored. This is a great increase, as compared with the day previous, when only 33 were reported. Death has taken to day from our midst, Theodore remains of a woman and a new-born Holst, Mrs. Ben. R. on Saturday for striking an officer during the riot, was in the police court today. Judge Snell, in giving a decision in his case, said that he held that Cohen had excited a feeling of riot among the more deluded and ignorant class, which, unless checked, might lead to serious results. While Cohen worked up this sort of thing, he was sharp enough to keep out of the way of the law, and his followers became victims All meetings and processions similar to those held by Cohen were riotous and disorderly The property and lives of the people were endangered, and should death result from any of these proceedings, each follower of Cohon would be amenable tor homicide. It should be stopped .-The workingmen could gain nothing Cohon was nobody and could do them no good. He concluded by saving that the accused was one of Cohen's victims that had been worked into the feeling of riot because of his teachings, and was somewhat excusable. MEMPHIS, Sept. 23.—The weather has turned warm again, which is favorable to the spreading of the disease among those who yet remain well. Since last night John C. Niemann, Alex. J. McConnell and John W. Lewis are names that appear among those who have died. Martin Griffin, Cashier of the German National Bank, was taken down this afternoon. This will not interfere with the business of the bank, as ex-Mayor John Johnson, Superintendent of the Howard Association, has taken charge, and will keep the institution open. The hope that had existed in the

ubating has been dispelled by the re-

MILITARY REVIEW.-This afternoon was a gala day with the two military companies of the city, the occasion being a review of the Guards and Grenadiers by Asst. Inspector General Maj. G. S. Dana At half-past I o'clock the Grenadiers left their Armory, under command of Captain George P. Zeiss, and proceeded up North Water street to a position in front of the Guard's Armory, where they were drawn up in line, and waited for the appearance of the company last named, which soon appeared, under command of Capt. A. Goodman. The battallion then formed, under command of Capt. Goodman, the senior officer, and marched in review before the inspector, who had taken position on the west walk of the park.

After passing in general review, the battallion was drawn up in a proper posiion for the inspection of arms, which was made in due form by Major Dana. The roll was then called by the same officer, and after a short time spent in parade the companies returned to their respective Armories, where they broke ranks. of this city, leave to day for Kansas, with Penniwell's excursion party. PERSONAL

THE Poorin Transcript notes the fact that there are two classes of greenback advocates, and it thus describes The genuine greenbackers are those that at present the pastures and fields are equal in value to and exchangeable for suffering for want of rain. An immense coin, and adding to their volume from time to time as the public good may reemigration is flowing through that country for the far west, the railroads being quire. obliged to bun special passenger trains to S. Senator, spent a part of yesterday in who favor the retention in circulation of our present greenbacks, making them

The Republican party represents this class of greenbackers. But there is another class falsely calling itself "the Greenbackers," which the Transcript Ewing. He left for Quincy by the 8:40 thus describes :

> The other class of Greenbackers among us are Greenbackers so called-"absolute money" men, "fatists" frauds and financial lunatics. These men do not want to retain our present greenback, but want to put in its place. a species of currency stamped by the Government as "absolute money currency which is never to be redeemed a legal tender for all debts, public and private, but not exchangeable for gold or silver or anything else of valuenot worth a penny to buy a man a dinner, or keep a man from rags; good only to pay a debt with, and then good for nothing more. The advocatos of a currency like this are financial lunatics, who think the Government can by its simple fiat, make absolute money out of paper and maintain it at full credit throughout the nation .for all

These are the fellows who are being organized into clubs and secret lodges by the followers of "Brick" Pemerov. Sam Cary and their hired agents.

MILITARY REVIEW .- This afternoon was gain day with the two military companies of the city, the occasion being a review of the Guards and Grenadiers by Asst. Inspector General Maj. G. S. Dana At half-past 1 o'clock the Grenadiers left their Armory, under command of Cantain George P. Zeiss, and proceeded up. North Water street to a position in front of the Guard's Armory, where they were drawn up in line, and waited for the appearance of the company last named, which soon appeared, under command of Capt. A. Goodman. The battallion then formed. under command of Capt. Goodman, the senior officer, and marched in review before the inspector, who had taken position on the west walk of the park.

After passing in general review, the battallion was drawn up in a proper posiion for the inspection of arms, which was made in due form by Major Dana. The roll was then called by the same officer. and after a short time spent in parade the companies returned to their respective Armories, where they broke ranks.

a visit to Senator David Davis at his home in Bloomington, for the purpose of requesting his aid in the Massachusetss campaign, it being claimed by the Fiatists that Judge Davis is in entire sympathy with their views and aims, and can be induced to take the stump in Butler's behalf. The spectacle of David Davis pooling issues with Dennis Kearney, and speaking from the same platform with the sand-lot orator in the interest of repudiation, revolution, and anarchy, could only be imagined by a Fiat lunatic during a period of the wildest craze, such as that which has followed the Maine election. The Indapendent Senator from Illinois will probably be more astonished than any ody else that such a thing should be thought possible.—Chicago Tribune.

There comes a significant report from St. Petersburg, that the San Stefano treaty being merely preliminary, and the treaty of Berlin leaving some essential points undecided. Russia has now submitted to Turkey the draft of a new and definite treaty, affirming friendship and alliance between Russia and Turkey. The clauses of this treaty also confirm the indemnities payable to Russia, including the payment of 10,000,000 roubles to Russians residing in Turkey, and the regulations relative to the commerce of both countries. In spite of the struggle so recently concluded almost at the very gates of Constantinople, it will not be surprising to see the antagonists in that contest in close alliance.
